

BVA News & Notes

- Next meeting is Thursday, March 5th— 6:30-7:30 PM at Beaumont UMC on North Liberty Street. Please note the change of location. Please use the N. Fairview Street entrance. We have permission to park in the Baptist church lot across N. Fairview. (Please be aware that the street lighting is not good and the pavement may be uneven— I am bringing a flashlight, although Daylight Savings time begins March 8th. —editor) Many thanks to the Methodist Church for offering the use of their facilities, and to the New Testament Church for their help in the past.
- Dues for 2020 are now due. See the application form below.
- New Contact Information for the Association— You can now contact the BVA directly using our new email address and dedicated phone line (see the box on page 2). If no one answers please leave a message and we promise to get back to you promptly.
- Community Resource Information which has appeared from time to time in this newsletter has been compiled and updated and will be available as a download from our website by next week (see the Resources page). Headings include Emergency Assistance, Government & Public Safety, Health & Safety, and Housing & Education. Your neighborhood association aims to keep residents informed about programs and resources available in Spartanburg. Interested in volunteering? There are a lot of opportunities out there.
- How do you like the park? Drop us an email at beaumontmillvillage@gmail.com. It looks like folks are using the Little Library— don't forget to make sure the door is closed to protect the books from the weather. With warmer weather the park should get a lot of use.
